

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Summer (May- August), Fall (August- December) and Spring (January- May)

Overview:

Our company is seeking hard-working interns willing to make a commitment to their personal, academic and professional development. We are interested in interns with a creative edge whose studies and interests are focused in the areas of:

- Marketing
- Advertising
- Multi-media and Web Design
- Graphic Design
- Business administration/General Mgmt
- Public Relations

Interns will be given meaningful and challenging work assignments relative to the success of our organization. Interns will also be able to learn and experience the many aspects of the ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY BUSINESS. The goal of this internship is the application of academic learning to real-world experiences.

Responsibilities:

Responsibilities will vary depending on the department. Interns may be responsible for overseeing and creating special projects, maintaining and creating databases, sending out promotional mailings, conducting research, developing creative material and projects, answering phones, writing reports, proofreading, and general administrative functions, such as filing, faxing, copying and distribution.

Each intern must commit 15-25 hours per week. We are very flexible with the internship schedule. The office hours are 9am-7pm.

Qualifications:

All candidates must be currently enrolled in a college, university or other educational program and display strong written and verbal communication skills, good organizational skills as well as ingenuity, creativity and an eagerness to learn. Candidates must also possess excellent computer skills (Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Outlook preferred).

Work schedule is flexible, but a minimum commitment of 15 hours per week is a must. The duration of the internship varies, please call for more information. Experience in an office or professional setting is a plus but not necessary for consideration.

This is a non-paid internship; however, we will work with college/university advisors to receive credit if applicable.
